DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is located on the south side of Manor Church Road about  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile west of the Antietam Creek in Washington County, Maryland. It is situated on an area of sloping ground and faces east, perpendicular to the road.

The dwelling is a two story, three bay log and frame structure sheathed with white aluminum siding. The northern third of the building is an addition of frame construction. The entire structure rests on stone foundations.

Most windows have six over six pane double hung sashes held within frames with early 20th century trim. Windows at the second story level of the log section have six over three pane sashes.

A one story porch which has been enclosed extends along the entire front elevation.

The roof is covered with sheet metal and terminates with a barge board set directly against the end walls.

The house is in excellent condition and stands on a tract containing one acre,  $38\frac{1}{2}$  perches.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This log and frame house, sheathed with aluminum siding is representative of a large group of such structures in Washington County, Western Maryland and Southern Pennsylvania. Log was a major building material in this area during the 18th and 19th centuries. Most of these remaining log dwellings have been sheathed with various forms of siding or bricks. This example was a secondary dwelling on a large farm along the Antietam Creek which belonged to the Schlosser family from the late 18th century till 1884.
